

Increasing awareness and appreciation of mangroves

You're invited to attend the opening of Moreton's Mangroves Exposed at the Artist Tree Metro Arcade, Bloomfield Street Cleveland on Saturday 27th April commencing at 9.15am

As a valued contributor to conservation in South East Queensland you're also invited to enjoy complimentary refreshments.

On arrival at the Artist Tree Gallery, present this Invitation at the desk and you'll receive a token enabling you to dine free-of-charge at the Artist Tree Cafe.

To assist with catering please advise by 24th April if you would like to partake of:

Morning Tea / Lunch / Afternoon Tea and whether you have any special dietary requirements

Reply to Debra debra@oceanwatch.org.au 07 3286 6194 0488 087 772 Image courtesy Julie Geldard www.vidpicpro.com

Increasing awareness and appreciation of mangroves

PROGRAM - Moreton's Mangroves Exposed

9.15 Welcome to Country: Aunty Joan Hendricks, Indigenous Elder Ngugi People

Local Government Member: Cr Paul Bishop, Redland City Council

Community Member: Vicky Macdonald, Artist Tree

Citizen Scientist: Geoffrey Redman, MangroveWatch

10.15 MORNING TEA BREAK

10.45 Summary of Data:

Jock Mackenzie & Dr Norm Duke

James Cook University, JCU

11.15 Moreton's Mangroves Exposed Art Exhibition Awards

11.45 Launch of I-phone App:

Dr Norm Duke JCU & Simon Baltais, WPSQ

12.00 LUNCH BREAK

1.00 Moreton's Mangroves Exposed: In-depth analysis of "MangroveWatch" data

Dr Norm Duke & Jock Mackenzie, JCU

3.00 CONCLUSION

Image courtesy of Julie Geldard